Crops in the South.

A recent visit to portions of Alahama and Mississippi has furnished us with some statis-tics regarding the prospect of the crops in those States, which may not be without interest to our readers. The whole of Southern

HAS just received his large and extensive stock of Fall and Winter Goods,

Consisting of Clutha Consineres, and Vertings, of than three hundred miles, have within the last two weeks been favored with the most abundant and seasonable rains. We were told by the planters that they had neither too much nor too little, but precisely enough. It will in most cases prove amply sufficient it is thought to insure first quality crops, even should they fail to get more during the continuance of

As a general thing, from two to three times as much corn as usual seems to have been planted, and a better yield to the acre, from present indications, has never before been promised in the history of the country. Whole fields that ten months since were Directofore occupied by John L. Scott.

Tudge lastes Simpson and John L. Scott will here after practice law in partership in the Court of Appeals and Federal Pourt at Frankfort. Judge Simpson would respectfully refer to all persons who have known him, either at the Ear or as Circuit Ludge in early life, or more recently as luge of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky. John L. Scott would refer to the persons heretotore referred to by birn in his published card.

South excellent and bountiful crops of this indispensable cereal mywhere in the South as now appear upon the prairie lands of eastern planter of Octibbeha county, that it can, in all probability, be purchased this fall in that vicinity at as low rates as twenty cents per bashel. Few, if any, anticipate sales over from forty to fifty cents in any part of the from forty to fifty cents in any part of the Confederate States. Nor is this estimate at all improbable when we come to consider such statistical facts as can easily be gathered from various sources. Poor lands in some counties, we are reliably informed, which last year yielded only from five to ten bushels, will this year produce from twenty-live to thirty. Some farmers assert that they will raise on an average seventy-five bushels to the acre. We not one planter, resident in Marengo, Ala., who has heretofore bought nearly all of the corn used on his place from the West, who, this fall, will have for sale at least twenty thousand busliels. These, with many other isolated facts, leave no doubt in our minds as to the truth of the encouraging statements heretofore made upon this subject by the newspaper press throughout the South. The impression seems to prevail that western corn, such as his always found a ready market in the South, if delivered in the Gulf States, will not commund in three mouths from today as much as twenty-five cents. If such in reality letthe case, the vast accumulation of corn in the granaries of Ohio, Illinois, and Indiana will doubtless subserve the purpose of fuel and nonnite during the present senson, in lieu of being exchanged for southern gold.

The cotton crop, in the sectious above alluded to, seems to be about an average, so far as quality is concerned, but certainly falls somewhat short in quantity. With favorable G. W. CRADDOCK & CRADDOCK as abundantly as usual. The whole crop in the South will evidently fall below that of last year by at least a half million bales, some

----Is Emancipation their Object?

The following extract is from a communieation in the New York Independent, written by the Hon. Neal Dow, of Portland:

"The war is to go on until the South is Nothing less than that will stop it, unless the North shall be wheelded into some base or nuworthy compromise. At the point of complete prostration, her armies overwhelmed by superior numbers, her ports hermetically scaled up from all the world, her trade destroyed and her credit utterly gone, she must surrender at discretion, and await such terms as the North may choose to impose. At precisely that point, what shall the North say in relation to the sin and shame of slavery—the awaiting civil process. great curse of our country and the sole cause of this baneful, atrocious rebellion? Shall we enthrone it once more in our land, with all its privileges, immunities, and guarantees, and bow down before it as in old time, and worship it; or shall we in the fear of God and love of our fellow-man, make such stipulations and conditions as shall certainly and speedily subvert it?

The above expresses the sentiment of more than one half of the Republican party in this State. They would not support the war an hour, if they did not believe that it would end in the abolition of slavery. Take, for instance, Gen. Fessenden, the father of Senator Fessenden. He has for years and years heen clamoring for a dissolution of the Union.

Now, all at once, he has conceived a sudden devotion to the Union, and advocates war to maintain it. Why this change? Under the cry of preserving the Government he is seeking the overthrow of slavery and the subversion of the Constitution. Such also is the spirit of the Government at Washington. It Has been engaged to attend to the unfinished professional business of the lated lon. Ben. Monroe, Communications addressed to him at Frankfort will receive prompt attention.

on the relations of Kentucky to the pending rehellion; and, as we are all Kentuckians Importors & Dealers, here together to-night, and as this is purely a family matter, which concerns the honor of usuall, I hope we may be permitted to speak to each other upon it with entire freedom. 1 shall not detain you with observations on the hostile and defiant position assumed by the Governor of your State. In his reply to the requisition made upon him for volunteers under the proclaumtion of the President, he has, in my judgment, written and finished his own history, his epitaph included, and it is proba-ble that in future the world will little concern itself as to what his excellency may propose to do, or as to what he may propose not to do. That response has made for Kentucky a record that has already brought a burning blush to the cheek of many of her sons, and is desthe years which are to come. It is a shame, indeed a crying shame, that a State with so itustrious a past should have written for her by h rown chief may strate, a page of history so atterly humiliating as this. But your Legislature have determined that during the pres-ent unhappy was the attitude of the State shall be that of strict neutrality, and it is upon this determination that I wish respectfully, let frankly, to comment. As the metives which governed the Legislature were doubtless patrictic and conservative, the conclusion arrived at can not be condemned as dishonorable, still, in view of the mani-I can not but regard it as mistrice and findse, and one which might have futal consequences.

CARY & TALBOTT, Strictly legally speaking, Kentucky must out of the Union before she can be neutral. Within it she is, necessarily, either faithful to the government of the United States, or she is disloyal to it. If this crutch of neutrality upon which her well-meaning but ill-judging politicians are halting can find any middle ders. ground on which to rest, it has escaped my researches, though I have diligently sought Neutrality, in the sense of those who now use the term, however patriotically designed, s, in effect, but a sucke in the grass of rebel-on, and those who bundle it, will sooner or later feel its fangs. Said one who speaks as man never spake, the who is not with us is against us;" and of none of the conflicts which have arisen between men or between nations, could this be more truthfully said, than of that in which we are now involved. Comment is unnecessary. These are plain words which all can understand. Mr. Holt is Luccoln's umbassador, sent to notify the people of Kentneky that they can not be neutral Read it, Kentnekians and decide which way you will go when driven from your neutrality. The Confederate Stat's have declared no war against Kentucky. Will Kentucky make war on them?—Stat sman.

From Missouri.

St. Louis, July 19. The following proclamation has just been received from Brig. Gen. Pope: Sr. Charles, Mo., July 19, 1861.

To the Prople of Northern Missouri:

"By virtue of the proper authority I have assumed command in Northern Missouri. I appear among you with a force strong enough to maintain the authority of the Government. and too strong to be resisted by any means in your possession usual in warfare. I pon your own assurances that you would respect the laws of the United States and preserve the peace, no troops have hitherto been sent into our section of the country

The occurrences of the last ten days, howeyer, have plainly exhibited that you lack either the power or inclination to fallill your pledges, and the Government has t fore found it necessary to occupy North Missouri with a force powerful enough to compel obedience to the laws. As soon as it is made manifest that you will respect its authority and put down the unlawful combinations against it, you will be relieved of the presence of the forces under my command, but not until then. I therefore warn all persons taken in arms against the Federal authority, wh attempt to commit depredations up a public or private property, or wh emolest moderalin and peaceful citizens, that they will be deal with in the most summary manner, without

- --Judge Terry's Declination.

It will be seen that Judge Terry declines the further prosecution of the canvass State Treasurer.

This step is to be regretted, and yet more, t is to be deplored that a public sentiment with the vital interest and real honor of the State that handreds and thousands of the best men in it are led to seriously contemplate a voluntary exile to other regions, where there is more of the love of liberty and the spirit of independence than there appears to be here.

The heart of Kentucky we know is right, and yet her action will be worthy of her an-

The declination of Judge Terry leaves the friends of the Constitution without a candi date for Treasurer, and it is necessary that one should be agreed on at once. In looking over the field, it occurs to us that J. R. Barrack, of Barren, is the man for the times, and we suggest his name. Able, popular, true, he is worthy of the post of honor, and of the confidence of the people. We trust by acclamation he will be accepted and supported.

THE CROPS IN LOUISIANA .- The Thibodeaux Sentinel says:

"The heavy showers we have been blessed with since our last issue, have done a power of good-the cane was greatly improved, and the prospects of a large sugar crop are looming up in every cane field of the parish. Peaches, figs, grapes, water-melous, and other snumer luxuries, are being hawked around

The Clinton Patriot says the crops in East Feliciana were never more promising at this period in the year than at the present time, and adds; "There never was, within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, such a yielding of corn, or such a breadth of land planted; in fact there are a number of planters who expeet to raise enough corn to supply them for two years. The cotton crop look admirably well, but no correct calculation can be made well, but no correct calculation can be made just now, of this crop, from the fact that it is liable to be destroyed in so many ways after it commences blooming and bolling."

"For the last three days we have been regularly blessed with a fine, refreshing shower of rain. The crops are perfect, and none better could be desired. Our planters are busily pulling fodder, and will have plenty to spare to their town customers."

The Speech of Senator Breekinridge, and the Opposition in Congress. The developments of each successive day render it more and more evident that, were the question of the present war to go before the people to-morrow, the truculent majority in Congress, which is disposing in so nnprincipled a manner of the lives and money of their constituents, would be permitted to stay at home, and conservative representatives be elected in their places. Of the ninety-two gentlemen who voted against the res plution of Mr. Wood, a careful analysis would prove that not over thirty will be re-elected; but that, as active participators in the misdeeds of what future generations will designate as the "Bloody Congress," they will, henceforth, be shorn of the confidence that has been proposed in their political integrity and judgment. On the other hand, it is impossible to review without sentiments of just pride the manly and dignified course that has een taken by the Burnetts, Vallandighams, and their associates in the llouse, and statesmen like Breckinridge, Polk, and others, in the Senate. The speech of the Ex-Vice President of the United States, delivered day before yesterday, is worthy of his high fame and exhalted genius, and may be pronounced a safe test for all to rend, who desire a thorough exposition of the motives that have led to the fratricidal conflict which is desolating the hind,

We had supposed that the most odions of the atrocities of the Lincoln Administration had at least been laid before the public. Some of the revelations contained in Mr. Breckinridge's calm and eloquent remonstrance against a blind indorsement of the infamous policy of the Government, show that there have been hidden abysses of trenchery and wickedness of which no one had even dreamed. "I am told, Sir," he said, saud if I had the power I would offer a resolution to inquire into it, in the name of the public liberties,-I am told that, at this moment, in the jail of this city, there are individuals who have been taken by military authorities from Maryland and other States, and now lie friends made application at one of the Departments, and they looked into the case and States: Therefore, ound there was nothing against him, and he his imprisonment, were forgotten." We appeal to the free citizens of America whether a state of things more transcendently horrible and iniquitous can be imagined. The French revolution, with the Reign of Terror and infernal guillotining, pales before the hideous recitals of Bastile cracities, and the lettres de cuchet of Bourbon tyrants, and here we have Democratic Republic. The uprising wheel which has swept, within a few years half a zen petty despots from their thrones in Italy, was mainly caused by popular hatred of rulers whose worst offense was claudestine and false imprisonments; yet the miscreants who have violated their oaths of office at Washington, have thrust, with impunity, free born Americans into dungeons, who are found upon inquiry to be charged with no offense recital of such tyrannous usurpations.

"I am aware," said Mr. Breckinridge appeal against these contemplated proceedilash of frenzy may not assume the form of chronic madness, but that Divine Providence may preserve for us and for posterity, out of the wreck of a broken Union, the priceless principdes of constitutional liberty and self-government?" Despotism, with military anarchy rapidly degging its footsteps, never stalked forth in such formidable shape, over a downtrodden land. The infernal strife, into which an unprincipled Abolition Government has precipitated the country, has only just commenced. The end is far off yet; but we begin to see, out of the continually increasing darkness, still blacker and more terrible shadows emerging, which only need time to develop into palpable, ghastly shape. One of the ablest and, personally, most humane of the lenders of that party to which Mr. Lincoln owes his election to power, has recently called for a Presidential akase, liberating all the Saves in the Southern States. "Let the President," be exclaims, "proclaim such libera-tion, and the war would end in thirty days. There would be no squeamishness, then, about letting ten or fifteen black regi move southward from Canada and the Northern States; and with that most attractive and efficient help, many of our white regiments might be left to 'stand still and see the salvation of the Lord." "irrepressible coullict" which the majority in present Congress have been aiding. Thank God that by its side there has been a heroic minority, grounded in that 'sober second thought" of the people which must eventually prevail, although perhaps too late restore order out of the growing chaos.

We are indebted to Sonator Powell for revised pamphlet copy of his sound and ble speech in the Senate on the 11th, against ne joint resolution to approve and confirm Linoln's unconstitutional acts. 34th District-Perry, Breathitt, Letcher, Harlan, and Clay cour 35th District-Estill, Owsley, Jackson, and Montgomery counties. There are not so many counties disfranchised, nor so many doubly represented, as I had supposed. All of the districts are entitled, by a full vote, (not having voted for four years.) to elect this year, except districts Nos. 9, 11, 17, 21, 22, and 30, which six last named obtain the right by having the largest fractional number. Owen, district 22; Shelby, district 21, and Fleming, district 30, earry the election by fractions of 2167, 2111, and 1961, not much above the disfranchised counties Nicholas 1696, Marion 1654, Clarke 1493 Monroe 1486, Grant 1407, and Lincoln 1162.

MEMORANDUM.-This calculation is based upon the enumeration of qualified voters of 1857; and the numbers of the districts are those of the apportionment of 1860.

It is "nature's own remedy," for GONO. RICEA, (Clap.) GLEET, GRAVEL. STRICTURE and is expecially recanneed by for FLUOR ABLES (Whites in Females,) for this complaint it is invaluable.

Cerate, or Uniment,

(Whitesia Females,) for this complaint it is invaluable.

FEAS ageneral alterative and blood purifier it has no equal, and does not fail to cure SCROFULA, SECONDARY SYPHILIS, GLANDULARSWELLINGS, MERCURIAL and ALL ERUPTIVE DISEASES, curing them more specifity and permanently than any other medicine known. It does this by portfying and elevating the blood! Causing it to flow in all its original purity and vizor, thus removing from the systemall impure and pernicious causes which have induced disease.

[17] In all dd cases of Gonorhwa and Gleet, that have baffled all medical skill, it is especially recommended—in old cases it never fails, and recent ones it curve from one to three days. A few closes positively removes all scalding heat, chorded and pain. and you have a permanent cure.

The Cerate has proved itself to be the hest of the continuation of the cure of Old Sores, Tetter and Kingworn, Senid Head, Chilblains and Frost Bites, Barber's Itch, Chapped or Cracked Ilands, or lips, Blotches or Pimples on face, and for Sore Nipples and Sore Eyes, the Cerate is the only thing required to cure should be kept in the house of every family. Price of Syrup $1, Cerate 25 cents per bottle. Birections accompany each bottle. Sold by most Medicine dealers.

made to me from many good citizens of this Commonwealth, praying me to issue a procla-mation forbidding the march of any forces of this or any other State or States over our soil, to make an apprehended attack upon the Foleral forces at Cairo, in Illinois, or to disturb any otherwise the penceful attitude of Kentucky with reference to the deplorable war now waging between the United States and the Confederate States. And whereas, numerous applications from like good citizens of this Commonwealth have also been made to me, praying me to issue a proclamation forbidding the occupation of any post or place, or the march over our sacred soil by any force of the United States for any purpose. And whereas, it is made fully crident, by every indication of public sentiment, that it is the determined purpose of the good people of Kentucky to maintain, with courageous firmness, the fixed position of self-defense proposing or intending no invasion or aggression towards any other State or States, forbidding the quartering of troops upon her soil by either of the hostile sections, but sind ply standing about from an unuatural, horrid and lamentable strife, for the existense of which Kettucky, neither by thought, word, or net, is in any wise responsible. whereas, the policy thus recommended by so many of my fellow-citizens of all political leanings, is, in my judgment, wise, peaceful, safe, and honorable, and the most likely to preserve peace and amity between the neigh-toring bordering States on both shores of the Ohio river, and protect Kentucky, generally, from the ravaces of a deploral le war. And whereas, the arms distributed to the "State Guard, composed as it is of gentlemen HATS AND CIPS equally conscientious and honest, who enter- Ever brought to the city.
